Dear Madame:—

I came home last Thursday for a few weeks
vacation, am having a nice time.

I was intended sending you a card while in the city but did not get it done, several times said this some one you.

I hope you and all are well. It may get out to see you when I come. I come to see you if you can.
I am as usual. With love.

Yours truly,
Theresa A. Thomsen.
